

NAME: _____

INSECT	EXOSKELETON	ANTENNAE	COLONY	METAMORPHOSIS	THORAX
ABDOMEN	DECAY	INVERTEBRATE		COCOON	ENTOMOLOGIST

Match the words above to the correct meaning, by writing them in the correct box.

	To rot or become rotted.
	An animal that does not have a backbone or skeleton inside of it's body.
	A covering made by young insects to protect themselves while they change into an adult.
	The changes in form of living things as they grow.
	A scientist that studies insects.
	The middle part of an insect's body.
	A small animal with a hard covering over its body. Most have 3 body parts and 6 legs.
	The rear part of an insect.
	The supporting structure on the outside of an insect.
	A place where a group of insects settle or live.
	One of a pair of long, thin body parts on the head of insects. They are used to feel and smell.

Write 5 complete sentences using 5 different no bones vocabulary words of your choice.

1.)

2.)

3.)

4.)

5.)